FESTIVAL GUIDELINE
TEAM
First, because 2020 turned out to be a very “interesting time” (to quote an old Chinese curse), and second because it is still difficult to grasp that Vienna, a notoriously conservative city, welcomed our brave concept with such open arms. Seems that the town that provided the world with BDSM (wassup Sacher-Masoch!) and early erotic movie screenings (shout-out to Saturn-Film!), is still game for new challenges. And challenges that are of great importance. We are talking about new ways to see and redefine porn, save it from the clutches of the boring mainstream, and turn a blatantly heterosexist bulk commodity into a positive way to enjoy sensuality. Let’s rethink society!

This year we are asking “What is sex?” You might chuckle, but it’s not that simple! Who has the normative power to define what we are dealing with? What is sex, what not? Where does it start, where does it end? We aim to ignite a dialogue about various societal and political phenomena that are commonly subsumed into the term “sexuality.” This debate incorporates a broad range of themes, from consent to biopolitics, from trans rights to sex work. In our function as Vienna’s one and only festival for all things “erotic, sensual, and sleazy,” we compiled a dazzling program with more than 100 feminist, queer and ethical production and we are proud being able to present our silver screen extravaganza in a glorious new visual design. (Our heroes: buero butter!)

The focus of the festival is on international filmmaking, but Austrian productions are always dear to our hearts. We are a bit sad that Corona made it impossible to invite our jury members to Vienna, but we hope to be able to fly them in for #pffv2021. We actively plan to address the dreadful little virus that changed all our lives, but also the demanding topic of climate change and porn. Besides the cinematic realm, we proudly offer expert panels, audience discussions, workshops, performances, and an art exhibition. Lots of opportunities to joyfully cross borders and open interaction between artists and audience, filmmaker and spectator.

Can good porn change the world? We hope so! Let’s celebrate the most wonderful thing in the world!

Yavuz Kurtulmus & Jasmin Hagendorfer
The (in)escapable monotony of pornographic representations

Porn Film Festival Vienna was launched in 2018 and started it's existence by posing an easy (yet strangely hard to answer) question: “What is porn?”. 2020 sees the festival return with the challenging objective to showcase and celebrate the colorful diversity of porn and stimulate an open societal debate. The next issue will deal with the body and sexuality as a guiding principle: »WHAT IS SEX?« will be the central question of the festival and exhibition at Improper Walls. This question is the core of the theoretical confrontation.

Our collaboration takes the shape of a 4-week long exhibition project which includes a group show, discussions and performances throughout the program. The exhibition aims to open up a dialogue between artworks/artists and public to reflect the connotation of various concepts such as sex, sexuality, porn, gender, pleasure, fantasy, reality and the discrepancy between spectatorship and experience.

Porn offers a wide array of possibilities, a room of diversity. Yet, it is also a strongly mainstream-oriented and heteronormative genre. How can we break the barriers of this monotony and potentially male gaze? How can queer/feminist porn unfold its subversive and creative potential?

DIE TRAURIGEN MÄDCHEN AUS DEN BERGEN

English title: The Sad Girls of The Mountains

Four depressive teenage girls withdraw from patriarchal society to start a new life in a mountain hideout. Isolated from society, they transform their misery and melancholia into pornography for their web project “The Sad Girls of The Mountains” and use the money they earn to fund their survival and to support Kurdish militia groups. The girls see their sadness as an act of countercultural resistance and want to weaponize the so-called male gaze. The arrival of two reporters intending to make a documentary about them changes the dynamics in their feminist micro-utopia. A mockumentary stuffed with witty social criticism.

Das satirische Portrait vier junger Mädchen, die ihre eigene Traurigkeit als Akt des Widerstands gegen das Patriarchat zelebrieren und Pornos zur Unterstützung kurdischer Frauenmilizen drehen.

Because of her musical background she is a thoroughbred musician, who as a DJane knows how to get the best out of every track in order to rock the crowd. Since 2011 she is known as one of the resident DJs from the famous PINKED clubbings in Vienna and since 2013 she gets booked for various gigs throughout Europe such as Palma de Mallorca, Munich and Berlin. Furthermore one of her mixes was played at the radio station FM4 at the radio programme “la boum deluxe”, which is known for Austria’s finest electronic underground music. She rocked the EuroPride Vienna 2019 Crowd, but the journey is far from over …

Wer Ohren und Nase voll hat von monotonen Beats und einschlafenden Füßen, ist bei NiCA richtig aufgehoben. Also Tanzschuhe auspacken und musikalisch berauschen lassen!
Our collection of Austrian Porn Shorts presents exquisite nibbles beyond mass porn boredom. Get ready to observe vibrators and domestic kittens fighting and biting. We will travel to surreal landscapes to watch a vibrant pink anus in flirtatious interactions and embark on a dreamlike journey through shifting layers of consciousness. We will enjoy the great masturbatrix enjoying herself, immerse ourselves in thoughts of possibilities and limits, and be electrified by the power of the vulva. We will witness fruity fleshy pleasure, a blind sexdate experiment, and hear a poetic story of emotional memories and burning sensations.

Die Austrian Porn Shorts laden zur Hingabe in surreale Traumlandschaften, zu einer Puppe, die sich selbst liebt, in sinnliches Fruchtfleisch und zum hypnotischen Versinken in Vulven und alten Erinnerungen.
An interactive workshop applying different participatory methods to answer this year’s main question: “What is sex?”. Elif Gül will show us different sexualities, sexual practices and question societal norms and values surrounding human sexuality. In a two-hour work setting we will try to enhance our knowledge about what sex can be or might be for individuals, cultures, religions and look at pornography from a queer/intersectional feminist perspective. The reduction of human sexuality to patriarchal and reproductive (vagina/penis) sex will be analyzed from a critical perspective.

All genders are welcome!

Elif Gül is a Vienna-based sex educator and anthropologist and has a degree in gender and sexuality studies at the University of Amsterdam. Besides working with children and adults, she is also working in gender consulting to better working environments for all genders.

Der Workshop „What is sex?“ setzt sich mit unterschiedlichen Sexualitäten und sexuellen Praktiken auseinander und hinterfragt gesellschaftliche Normen und Werte die unseren Sex prägen. Alle Geschlechter sind herzlichst willkommen!
LESBIAN PORN

These Shorts take us on hot lesbian, queer adventures. We will take part in a journey on a motorbike that leads us directly into another kind of bumpy ride in a motel room. We join two women talking about safe sex before lustfully engaging in it. We experience the orgasmic climax of a boiling tea kettle in the morning, and observe three entwined bodies having casual sex in a nightclub. And we (excuse the pun) finish off with a engaging sex-positive potpourri featuring our favorite Berlin scenesters.

All short films are wonderfully diverse, but with a strong emphasis on erotic intimacy between women*.

UNTIL PORN DO US APART

"Until Porn Do Us Part" describes two lives that could not be more different: First, there is Eulália, a conservative and religious woman and second, there is her son, Foster, who has just moved to Berlin, to fulfil his dream of becoming a porn actor. Eulália chastises herself every day by stalking her son’s facebook profile. She regularly sends him tons of messages that remain largely unanswered. Foster tries to protect himself by escaping from his mother’s care. Will mother and son find a way to reunite as a loving family?

Die konservative Mutter, Eulalia, auf der einen Seite und ihr Sohn, Foster, der sein Geld als schwuler Pornostar verdient, auf der Anderen. Dieser Film zeigt eine durch ihre Weltanschauung getrennte Familie.

QUEER PORN

This short film collection is a celebration of the innumerable and diverse forms of queer sexuality. So called “key parties” are being reinvented, BDSM practices are shown in a kinky yet intimate and raw way, and anonymous sexual encounters in the lesbian cruising scene are explored. Watch pin-up beauty Mimosa experience an otherworldly orgasm and meet freshly-fucked foodies order a special delivery. Also questions are being raised: about belonging and feeling home in queer scenes, about being “queer enough.” They lead into a playful exploration of sexualities, joy and pleasure.

2ND OF OCTOBER
This colorful movie by filmmaker, painter and performer Mara Mattuschka is based on Plato’s eponymous dialogue. At the center of the film is Emil, a young actor who is the object of desire of Italian fashion-designer Rossi and his dubious colleague Strauß. A fateful triangular (and later polygonal) story about power and desire unfolds. In this film, queer birds of paradise, colorful creators of self-portraits and untamed outsiders find each other and make the dark corners of the city shine.

Mara Mattuschka’s newest film lets the boundaries between friendship, power and love blur and tells a grotesque triangular and multi-sided story in a colorful manner.

Exciting! We can’t wait to hear the erotic melodies that Ginger Red will serve us on Friday at Schikaneder. If you don’t get hot in front of the DJ booth, you can’t be helped. Better be there! It all started just for fun and after nearly eight years Ginger Red became a well-known DJ in the Viennese queer culture. As well she ran her very own successful parties but couldn’t continue due to the many requests and possibilities, that’s why she prefers to work with existing organizers for a colorful togetherness.

How do you capture feelings, sensations, lust, passion, pleasure if you want to challenge stereotypes and push boundaries? All the artists in this short film compendium dare to go one step further: We follow lonely mutants looking for warmth, experience saving the world by smoking sperm, dance on surfaces, worship fetishes in a psycho-erotic musical, relax with a queer slave and reassess our view of cam-girls.

Lost girls take us on a visceral trip, luscious fruit enamors us, we question reality, discover the bizarre as beautiful, and let water be our guide in healing through sexual agency.

CONSCIOUS DREAM

It is the year 2018. We go on a journey into the subconscious of life itself. Morgana Mayer meets, greets and interviews people who give her a glimpse into their sexuality and their fantasies by presenting an extreme, delicate, dreamlike and queer universe to the spectator. It is an extraordinary tribute to Hans Rolly’s work as a filmmaker. Conscious Dream is a docufiction proposing an idea of European queer eroticism, about how the state of things could (and maybe should) be viewed. Join us for this cineastic day-dream that leads us to the epicenter of our being.

What is sex work (not)?

Did you ever have questions about sex work that you didn’t dare to vocalize? Ever wondered what questions you should and should not ask a sex worker? “What is sex work (not)?” is an open session designed to provide space for questions by the audience in an effort to make a contribution to clarifying ambiguities around the socially, politically and morally vastly loaded topic of sex work. A short introduction regarding to current challenges in the field will be provided at the beginning.

Christine Nagl is a highly experienced and vocal activist for sex workers’ rights in Austria and beyond. For more than 10 years, she has actively been counseling sex workers on the field while simultaneously pursuing agendas on the national as well as international level. Between 2017 and 2020 she was a steering committee member at TAMPEP - The European Network for the Promotion of Rights and Health among Migrant Sex Workers. Please kindly note that this session assumes that sex work is work and that questions building upon that premise will be dealt with.

Ausgehend von der Prämisse, dass Sexarbeit Arbeit ist, widmet sich der Beitrag “What is sex work (not)?” nach einer kurzen Einführung in aktuelle Herausforderungen im Feld der Sexarbeit in Österreich den Fragen des Publikums, um sich gemeinsam an Antworten bzgl. dieses geladenen Themas anzunähern.
This program is entirely dedicated to female lust and pleasure and showcases masturbation as an act of liberation and empowerment. Drenched in cozy pinks and strong reds, showered with glitter, oil and water, the scenes evoke sensuality and passion – in the forest, at the lake, on the couch and in the bathtub! Rhythmically, the protagonists their body, in pairs of two and three. A mystical witch pays tribute to her sensual inner goddess with a gorgeous female* python while Narcissus & Echo show up in an engaging feminist reinterpretation of the story. What remains is a plea for self-love and body positivity.

Die Shorts plädieren für Selbstliebe und befreite weibliche Lust, zeigen sinnliche Masturbationen, rot-pink eingefärbt, mit Glitzer überstreut, einfühlsam am See, im Wald und im eigenen Zimmer.
What is to be expected from the STRAIGHT PORN SHORTS this year? Trying to unveil reality, we follow the life of a full-time sex worker. Continuing on educating, a musical gush takes a look at polyamory in a SFW comedy. Porn Life is brought to a next level, sneak peeks are taken in the daily life of two different sex workers! Fantasies run wild and create pythonesque emotions and lustful touches. A personal dating history collides with humor and cynicism, while in other parts we come to enjoy primeordial instincts - instincts we all know. Electro-sensually charged and driven by our inner avantgarde, we approach flowers and change and decay. We go straight to the core of lust.

Wer auf Körperflüssigkeiten steht, ist hier goldrichtig. Bei uns werden zumindest einige Lachtränen vergossen. Die diesjährigen STRAIGHT PORN SHORTS bringen uns zum Lachen, Weinen und Stöhnen!
FETISH PORN

Fetish Porn Shorts present a spectrum ranging from deeply caring hospital clowning to highly intensive love stories. Therefore, we will visit a red lighted basement, learn about Leo, who tries devotedly to make his Miss happy, and experience a bedroom scene featuring pink sneakers. We will go on an adventurous shopping trip, witness a transformation in loops, find ourselves on a female journey of sexploration and watch an intern putting much effort into his performance. Finally, we witness an intimate story about a boy’s fantasy, and a love-story charged with stroboscopic violence.

This year’s collection of GAY PORN SHORTS is as colorful, as intimate, as powerful as it can get! Colorful like the wonderful bouquets of flowers, which create a dreamlike symbiosis between man and nature. Powerful, because our journey presents the idea of good sex with mother nature. Yum! And intimate? Yes! Lasting romantic moments that feel like a good friend whispering dirty secret in our ear. Secrets? We have heard a lot, but sometimes really tough ones are being revealed. Time to talk about ALL of history! Dirty and bold, that’s how we like it – because sometimes more is more, less is boring! Enjoy delicious gay snacks!

Menschliche Blumensträuße, Orgien in französischen Wäldern, queere Geschichte und eine schwule Kindheit in Malaysia? Bunt, politisch und intim ist auch das diesjährige Programm der GAY PORN SHORTS.
FUCKING AGAINST FASCISM

This film was conceptualised as a way to make something on a small enough budget that we could use it to raise money for life-saving charities, but grew as each performer, brilliant and talented in all they do, brought their own intentions and meanings to this erotic project. Portions of the sales from the film will be donated monthly to Trans Lifeline, Black Lives Matter and other organizations resisting the up-rise of fascism around the world.

GODDESS CKIARA’S TEMPLE

When Gabriel, a member of a SWERF (sex-worker exclusionary radical feminist) “savior society,” poses as a client for a Pro Domme session with Goddess Ckiara, in order to “save” her from the sex industry, his mission does not go as planned.

Diese beiden Filme zeigen uns, wie hochpolitisch Porno sein kann und wahrgenommen werden sollte, ein lustvolles Auflehnen gegen Faschismus und Kolonialismus.

Sex in Zeiten Coronas

with Dr. Barbara Rothmüller – German – 120’

Distancing requirements have been a game changer, not only on the dating market. How did the pandemic affect sexualities? And how did people navigate their desire under conditions of social distancing? Trying to overcome social isolation, many people started experimenting with new practices of intimacy during the lockdown. The lecture will present selected findings from the online survey “Love, intimacy, and sexuality in the time of COVID-19”.

Barbara Rothmüller is a sociologist and sex educator. She leads the study “love, intimacy and sexuality in the COV- VID-19 pandemic” and has published the “Safer Cyber Sex Guide” together with her team.

Info: barbararothmueller.net

Die Anforderung sich zu distanzieren ist ein game changer gewesen, nicht nur am Dating-Markt. Der Vortrag zeigt, wie die Pandemie Sexualität(en) beeinflusst hat und welche neuen Formen der Intimität entstanden sind.
Foreplay: From cannabis, eco-sexuality and consensual kink to a fake documentary that explores the “Pohornys” tribe practicing eco-sexual rituals; from floral fuckery to tree vulvas: Love your environment and make love in your environment!

The main act: “Fuck For Forest”: a documentary, from the startup of the world’s only real social ecological porn project – also known as the FFF. Follow the gonzo story of Leona & Tommy – creating fuck for forest.

Armed with low-fi equipment and sexy attitude, FFF collects money for saving nature, while learning about the power of sex and nudity – facing the sad reality of nature suppression.

Once again this year, we want to pay tribute to national filmmakers with a Mara Mattuschka retrospective! In her short film program, she shows us body, lust, sex, intimacy and language as the playing field of the cinematic eye. She opens up concepts, connects them with bodies and bodily fluids, and expands the corporeal with her private, virtuous mythology. Lust, disgust, shame and ecstasy are constantly being staged anew. In the process, she blurs the deciphering of female and male bodies. In doing so, her films meet the festival’s thematic focus: “What is sex?” and find a new translation.

Mara Mattuschka was born in 1959 in Sofia, Bulgaria. She studied ethnology and linguistics at the University of Vienna. The award-winning filmmaker, actress and painter lives and works in Vienna.
Our little melange of political porn shorts features a variety of experimental films that address a stunning variety of social and political issues connected to bodies, sexualities and good old sex. You’ll be able to witness a group of queers discovering their sexuality beyond all concepts of gender and identity—thanks to German sausages. You will be joining a suicidal wrestling ring, but also witness 11 different ways to give and receive pleasure while social distancing in times of Corona. And can sexuality be a salvation from fascism? Take out your knives in solidarity with consensual pervert lifestyles across the galaxy!

Das Political Porn Shorts Programm verbindet politische Forderungen mit experimentellen filmischen Ausdrucksformen. Marginalisierte Perspektiven werfen wichtige Fragen nach sexueller Selbstbestimmung und Freiheit auf.
All good things come to an end, let’s take this as an opportunity to celebrate, drink and laugh together again. Super bonus: this year’s closing event at Schikaneder is even hosted by a #pffv team member. Hawt! “Die Zuckerkettenfrau” is not only an active part of PFFV, but also the rave & club scene in Vienna and knows to present herself in the social media world, on radio FM4 and at events. She uses her voice to focus spread awareness where it is needed. For art and culture, as a presenter or activist. She co-founded the special interest group Clubkultur. As a DJ, she tries to select sounds and spread her experienced rave vibes. This time she gets support from artist Claudia Virginia, who is responsible for #dornwittchen’s enchanting visuals and creative eye-catchers and who has been daring to take the stage with records for over a year. Her sets feature various genres from minimal to techno, world music and acid.

By participating in our festival, you and Porn Film Festival Vienna form an agreement to ensure our space feels more free and safer for us all, so make sure you follow these important rules:

Age.
Tickets are only sold to people 18 and over, upon presentation of a valid ID.

Respect.
This is the most important rule at the festival. NO racism, sexism, homophobia, transphobia, body-shaming, ageism, ableism or discrimination of any kind whatsoever.

Behave.
Respect personal space, boundaries and consent – an enthusiastic YES is a yes, everything else is a NO. Remember you are still in public, this is not the place for nudity or engaging in sexual activity. Keep the fun for later - at one of our many side events or parties.

Don't Assume.
People at the festival will have diverse genders, sexualities, relationship styles, nationalities, ages, disabilities, class and cultural backgrounds, and political and religious beliefs. Please try not to make assumptions about these, and to take somebody's self-identity at face value. Please ask when you're unsure.

Open Mind.
You are here because you want to see something new, daring and different. You will see things you want to see, and other things you didn’t want to see so much. You might get triggered – comes with the territory. Please do not make derogatory comments or jokes. Instead, stay open minded and expand the limits of your comfort zone.

Bathrooms.
Please keep in mind that bathrooms are gender-neutral during the entire festival.

Support.
If you have any problems at the event, please talk to one of the organizers. However, it is your personal responsibility to ensure your safety. Porn Film Festival Vienna can’t take responsibility for you. If you have any questions please contact us for advice.

Social Media.
Please use it generously! We hope that you will post and blog about the festival. Tag us on Instagram @pffvienna, Twitter @pffvienna and find us on Facebook at "Porn Film Festival Vienna". However, please do not publicly criticize or condemn individuals. If you have a complaint or criticism about the event please consider contacting us, the organizers. We are open to suggestions, improvements and critique! This year’s hashtags will be #pffvienna2020 & #pffv2020.

Our Right.
We reserve the right to ask a participant to leave the event immediately if we believe that a violation has occurred, or if we consider that they are a threat to the well-being of other participants. No refunds and no discussion.
Already here and now we want to announce the next edition of the Porn Film Festival Vienna. After 2020 was a smaller edition due to circumstances, we will return in 2021 in full size - to the cinemas, to the big screen! We are already planning hard and there will be many film highlights, juicy shorts and many surprises!

We are looking forward to seeing you all again.
